AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendant asserts the following separate and distinct affirmative defenses:

1. The Complaint, and each cause of action, fails to set forth facts and allegations sufficient to constitute a cause of action against defendant.

2. The Complaint, and each cause of action, is uncertain, vague, ambiguous and unintelligible.

3. The alleged injuries or damages suffered by plaintiff, if any there be, were the sole and proximate result of the conduct of parties other than the answering defendant.

4. Plaintiff's damages, if any there be, were caused by plaintiff's own intentional or negligent acts, thus barring or limiting plaintiff's right to recovery.

5. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

6. Plaintiff has waived any and all claims that he may have or had against defendant arising out of the transactions and occurrences alleged in the Complaint.

7. Plaintiff is estopped from asserting any and all claims that he may have or had against defendant arising out of the transactions and occurrences alleged in the Complaint

⁸ Plaintiff failed to mitigate his damages if any there be.

1 9. Plaintiff, at all relevant times, gave his consent, express or implied, to the alleged acts,
2 omissions, and/or conduct of defendant.

3 10. The actions taken by defendant with respect to plaintiff were based on honest,
4 reasonable and good faith belief in the facts as known or understood at that time.

5 11. The actions taken by defendant with respect to plaintiff were based on good cause as 6 known or understood at that time.

7 12. Plaintiff's claims for statutory damages, including any penalties, fail to state claims
8 sufficient to state a claim upon which said damages can be awarded.

9
10 13. Defendant's conduct with regard to plaintiff was privileged, justified and in good
11 faith.

12 14. The Complaint, and each cause of action contained therein, is barred in that the 13 damages allegedly suffered by plaintiff, if any, were caused by the superceding, intervening and/or 14 independent negligence or intentional conduct of persons and entities, including plaintiff and his 15 agents, servants and/or employees and were not the result of any act, omission or conduct of 16 defendant.

17 15. The violation alleged by plaintiff, if any there was, was not intentional.
18 16. The violation alleged by plaintiff, if any there was, was the result of a bona fide error.
19 17. Defendant did not violate the Telephone Consumer Protection Act.
20 18. Plaintiff provided the telephone number to defendant without advising defendant it
21 was a cellular number.

22 19. At the time plaintiff provided his cellular telephone number he did not identify it as a
23 cellular number.

24 20. Plaintiff authorized the use of his cellular number by defendant.
25 21. Plaintiff had a pre-existing business relationship with defendant.
26 22. Plaintiff did not request defendant place his cellular number on a do not call list.

1 23. Plaintiff is not entitled to attorney's fees.

2 24. This action may not properly proceed as a class action because plaintiff's claims are
3 not typical of the claims of each putative class member.

4 25. This action may not properly proceed as a class action because questions of law and
5 fact allegedly common to the putative class do not predominate over the numerous questions
6 affecting only putative class members.

7 26. This action may not properly proceed as a class action because a class action is not
8 superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of plaintiff's claims and 9 any claims of putative class members.

10 27. This action may not properly proceed as a class action because plaintiff and his
11 counsel are unable to fairly and adequately protect the interests of the putative class members

12 28. This action may not properly proceed as a class action because there are 13 insurmountable difficulties that would be encountered in any attempt to proceed as a class action,
14 including for reasons of due process.

15 29. Plaintiff has not described the claims in the Complaint with sufficient particularity and 16 certainty to enable defendant to determine what additional defenses may be available to it.
17 Defendant therefore reserves the right to assert all defenses which may be pertinent to, or arising
18 from said Complaint, once the precise nature of such claims and causes of action are ascertained
19 through discovery.
